

ENHANCE YOUR BUSINESS WITH A LICENCE FROM THE HAPPINESS INSTITUTE

Offer positive psychology coaching, happiness courses, sell positive psychology products, and enhance your offering to clients by being trained in Positive Psychology by The Happiness Institute - Australia's leaders in this new and exciting field.

WHO ARE WE?

The Happiness Institute was established in 2003 by Professor Timothy Sharp, one of Australia's leading clinical and coaching psychologists who previously built an award winning private practice (www.makingchanges.com.au) from which he and his team have helped thousands of people overcome problems such as depression, anxiety, stress and insomnia. More recently, at The Happiness Institute, Dr. Happy, as he's come to be known, has developed a highly qualified and experienced team of caring professionals whose mission is to enhance happiness. Already we've helped thousands of individuals (and hundreds of organisations) live better lives.

With the focus on Positive Psychology, we have developed a number of proven and effective programs, a range of powerful products and even some very useful free resources! We teach and help people to apply strategies and skills and actively make lifestyle changes through our range of services based on extensive research. By offering clients a variety of options, it enables them to engage in learning in a way that best suits their circumstances, goals and preferences.

Research into positive psychology approaches has also found that teaching people resilience, optimism, acting in accordance with direction and goals, applied meditation and problem solving techniques, as well as helping them to identify and utilise their core strengths leads to constructive attitudinal and behavioural change and higher levels of health, success and happiness.

The Happiness Institute is also a highly regarded provider of corporate seminars and workshops covering topics such as how to be happy at work, resilience, time management, work/life balance, personal productivity, stress management and naturally, happiness.

Our website is at the forefront of the industry www.thehappinessinstitute.com where clients can contribute to our blog, subscribe to our free monthly eNewsletter (that contains happiness research, tips, book reviews and updates on our courses, coaching packages and activities), find a happiness coach, register for coaching and courses, purchase happiness CDs and tapes, read what the press has said about us and much more.

Ann was instrumental in changing the mortgage broking industry by introducing minimum education and experience standards via the Mortgage Finance Association of Australia (MFAA). Ann (having been elected by industry peers) served 7 years on the NSW council of the MFAA and is now a Fellow of the MFAA.

Ann has extensive experience in marketing and people management and a proven track record in growing a business and building a loyal, professional, dynamic team of consultants.

Together, Tim and Ann bring together an impressive array of complimentary strengths. With Tim's international reputation in the fields of clinical and coaching psychology, and Ann's proven track record building a highly successful national business based on integrity and quality, their combination has led to The Happiness Institute being an organisation that achieves great results for it's licencees and their clients.
